

Tax Services

Dare & Habere offers a wide range of tax advisory services to individual, organization and enterprise. Our tax specialists are problem-solvers and will reconcile client's need with the technical issues involved.

Compliance with the changing tax laws relies heavily on the interpretation of tax pronouncements and court cases. With a thorough understanding of client's business, personal objectives and investment risks, we combine professional judgment and business creativity and offer constructive solutions to our clients.

From the preparation of a tax return or evaluation of possible tax consequences to the handling of disputes and investigation, our tax specialists could play a key role to ensure that the tax issues are handled in a most efficient and least costly way.
